AUSTRALIA'S LARGEST & PREMIER PRIMARY INDUSTRY FIELD DAYS

20 - 22 August 2024 | Gunnedah NSW

www.agquip.com.au

INTRODUCTION

AgQuip, sponsored by Aon, is Australia's largest primary industry field day, attracting more than 50,000 visitors over three days in Gunnedah NSW - August 20 to 22, 2024 as well having a digital audience in excess of.... each month.

For more than 50 years, AgQuip has grown into a showcase of over 3,000 agri-brands and companies. AgQuip's significance lies in its ability to offer unparalleled opportunities for agribusinesses, serving as a platform for sales, innovation demonstration, brand promotion, and consumer engagement.

It remains dedicated to supporting both rural communities and primary industry manufacturers.

As the most influential agricultural event, AgQuip continues to attract professionals and entrepreneurs alike.

Renowned for showcasing the latest equipment, innovations, and technology, AgQuip provides manufacturers and dealers with effective sales and marketing opportunities.

The event organisers prioritise safety and collaboration with stakeholders to deliver enriching experiences that benefit local rural and regional communities economically, culturally, and socially.

AgQuip is a unique opportunity and highly effective way to reach and network with the broad ranging demographic of visitors and exhibitors to AgQuip - in an environment conducive to listening, learning, demonstrating, engaging and selling.

WHEN

AgQuip is held annually over three big days and will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, 20, 21 and 22 August 2024.

The public event opening times on Tuesday and Wednesday are from 8.30am to 4.30pm and on Thursday from 8.30am to 4.00pm.

WHERE

AgQuip is staged in Gunnedah NSW - located on its own permanent, purpose-built, dedicated field day site. The property is located eight kilometres west of Gunnedah off the Oxley Highway at 134 Black Jack Road.

WHO

AgQuip attracts attendance from visitors all over Australia including New South Wales, Queensland, Victoria, South Australia, Western Australia, Tasmania and Northern Territory. It is estimated in excess of 50,000 farmers, primary producers, farming families, landholders, agricultural workers, industry representatives from local government, mining and construction attend the in-person event over three day. AgQuip also has a strong digital footprint to our website each month and via our 18000 followers across our social channels.

AgQuip will reach and connect all people seeking information and to purchase the latest agricultural related and general interest products and services.

This will be an exciting opportunity to be associated with a highly promoted sales and marketing agri-event - which will widen brand awareness and expand the exhibitor's target audience.

SALES BENEFITS

Targeting rural Australians in the most effective way requires a combination and integration of this in-person event, virtual event, target marketing and media. This unique group of Australians live their values with a hard work ethic, integrity, and honesty. They are not easily persuaded.

The organisers understand you must engage them, earn their trust and be consistent to be successful! The field day events, agricultural and regional newspapers and digital media have a strong and powerful connection with rural Australia. The commitment and relationship with AgQuip field days customers is strong and ongoing. The organisers consistently deliver an event that reflects the pride and passion in rural Australia and the communities in which they serve.

The marketing strategy undertaken by the organisers has successfully utilised dedicated rural media platforms (newspapers, magazines, websites and social) as well as regional newspapers and websites, specific programming on television, radio and outdoor signage advertising and our own social media platforms to promote the event. Event participation offers significant and valuable promotional opportunities including product pointers in print, radio, digital media, social media associated with the AgQuip field days marketing.

EVENT MARKETING

DIGITAL MEDIA

The organisers carefully select a number of digital marketing channels to promote our sponsors, exhibitors and their products and services including AgQuip, The Land Newspaper, AgTrader, Livestock Connect and selected ACM rural and regional publication websites. In addition to AgQuip official social media, AgQuip Official App and Google ads.

OFFICIAL GUIDE BOOK

The AgQuip Official Guide is produced and published by The Land. It is designed specifically for visitor use and includes the site plan, pavilion plans, exhibitor listings, products on show, details of amenities and other key information. This comprehensive guide is distributed free at the event and is essential for visitors. Each exhibitor receives one free full company exhibitor listing and product listing reference. Additional listings can be purchased at the time of application or upon request. Exhibitors also have the opportunity to advertise in this publication. For further details and pricing, all enquiries should be directed to The Land (02) 4570 4422.

OFFICIAL PUBLICITY

If at AgQuip you are launching a new product or service, tell us about it. We may be able to obtain publicity opportunities for you. Media are always looking for a new angle, especially something new or ground breaking. For publicity package details see the application form.

OFFICIAL RADIO

To further promote your business over the days of the event, AgQuip presents the official special events radio station broadcast on 106.7FM. For radio advertising details see the application form.

OFFICIAL WEBSITE

The AgQuip official website is the online point of contact for exhibitors and visitors, providing a reflection of what AgQuip is all about and the ideologies guiding it. The organisers have created a new official digital advertising package to support the promotion of AgQuip and its exhibitors' products, services and super specials, with a unique virtual and digital advertising package designed for exhibitors only on the AgQuip Official Website.

OUTDOOR ADVERTISING

The AgQuip organisers apply a marketing strategy which includes roadside billboard advertising. You'll see roadside billboard branding on the main road from Tamworth to Gunnedah, from Narrabri to Gunnedah and on the highway between Scone and Aberdeen.

PRINT, TELEVISION, RADIO & DIGITAL ADVERTISING

Advertising for AgQuip on television and radio is extensive and includes placement in major regional television and radio markets, in line with our marketing plan.

The event is promoted through the Australian Community Media group including rural weekly publications The Land in NSW, Queensland Country Life, North Queensland Register, Stock & Land in Victoria, Stock Journal in South Australia and Farm Weekly in Western Australia.

SOCIAL MEDIA

If your company is launching a new product or service, tell us about it. Especially something new, innovative or groundbreaking. We work with internal and external PR teams to secure national earned media exposure.

MEDIA ADVERTISING

All exhibitors will be entitled to advertising opportunities offered by AgQuip's media partners. This includes the Official Guide and special event publications in print, on television, radio, digital marketing in the Official App, Official Facebook Page and the Official Website - with prominent placement across all platforms.

AgQuip Media Partners have specially prepared AgQuip electronic, print and digital media advertising packages available for exhibitors.

During the event, no vehicles are permitted to be parked on-site unless the vehicles are a part of the display (ie sign written with company logo). Parking is prohibited where you see a 'No Parking' sign.

PRIVACY POLICY

Information collected by the event organisers will be used for the purpose detailed on the Application terms and conditions or Official Website used for the submission of your application. All private information is subject to the Australian Community Media Privacy Policy, a copy of which is available on request. You have the right of access to and alteration of personal information concerning yourself in accordance with the National Privacy Laws. This may be done by contacting the Privacy Officer on 02 6768 5800 or emailing the event organisers, at: agquip@austcommunitymedia.com.au

PRODUCT LISTING

To keep the visitors informed on what is being displayed on your site, it is important you have completed the Product Listing section within your Application. This Product Listing is included in the AgQuip Official Guide, AgQuip Official App and Official Media Publications including The Land, The Northern Daily Leader, Namoi Valley Independent and Country Leader. It is important to be clear and precise about the products and services to be showcased on your site and it helps the organisers with your site allocations. The principal exhibitor is responsible for listing products to be displayed on your site.

SAFETY PLAN

Each exhibitor is required to complete an Exhibitor Safety Plan prior to participating at the event to ensure the exhibitor, their agents and contractors demonstrate they are working to the safety procedure while setting up, operating and dismantling their exhibition site. The Safety Plan will be made available to exhibitors following confirmation of application. It is mandatory for each exhibitor to submit a completed health and safety risk management plan prior to the field days, identifying the hazards potentially present on your site and ways in which you will minimise and control those hazards.

SITE ALLOCATION

Returning exhibitors will be offered the same site as occupied the previous year if the application is received prior to the 24th May. If the application is not received by this date, the returning exhibitor surrenders any claim to this site. Sites are only allocated to exhibitors who have sent in a completed Application form, confirmed by the event organisers. Every effort is made to allocate space according to the exhibitor's preferences. Please note the organisers reserve the right to allocate sites at their discretion and to alter allocations when necessary in consultation with the confirmed exhibitor.

SITE APPEARANCE

Exhibitors are expected to keep their exhibit sites in a clean, tidy state to eliminate/control hazards as identified on their Exhibitor Safety Plan. No vehicles, plant or equipment are to be located on-site, unless as part of the display. All vehicles on-site are to be sign written with their company logo. The organisers reserve the right to approve the character of all exhibits and check the exhibit is compliant and safe.

SITE SHARING (PIGGY BACKING)

Please note that no space farming, subletting or piggy backing is permitted at the AgQuip field days. The exhibitor is not entitled to assign or sublet all or part of their site. The nominated exhibitor is to occupy the site for the duration of the event for the primary purpose of sales and promotion of the exhibitor's business. For the protection of the exhibitor's governance and compliance interests, only displays which have a genuine company link, can be shown on the exhibitor's stand. It is the primary exhibitor's responsibility to nominate for approval all other businesses sharing their site on the application form.

SPONSORSHIP

If you are interested in being a future sponsor of AgQuip, please contact ACM Agri on 0497 351029 or email agquip@austcommunitymedia.com.au.

2024 TERMS & CONDITIONS

The Application together with these Terms and Conditions shall, on signed acceptance, form the Contract between the Exhibitor and the Organiser. The Exhibitor must comply with all relevant laws affecting its participation. The confirmation of the Application and the allocation of sites is at the total discretion of the Organisers.

1: CONTRACT

The Organiser grants to the Exhibitor a Contract to occupy the Site for the duration of the Event for the purpose of: (a) promoting the Exhibitor's business ("the primary purpose"); (b) erecting such temporary structures as are necessary to facilitate the primary purpose; (c) displaying products and services related to the primary purpose; and (d) subject always to the Organiser's prior approval and the Exhibitor's understanding their organisation's participation in AgQuip is subject to the terms and conditions and by submitting the Application it agrees to those terms.

2: CANCELLATION - EVENT

(a) The Organiser reserves the right to cancel this Contract and to retain any money paid or to recover any money not paid in relation thereto without assigning any reason for such cancellation and retention or recovery. (b) The Organiser reserves the right, if it considers it to be necessary, expedient or desirable to do so, to cancel or to postpone the operation of this Contract by notice in writing in the event of any occurrence or happening which in the opinion of the Organiser justifies it in so doing. The Exhibitor may not make any claim for compensation or damages or any other action or demand whatsoever, whether on the ground of loss of profits or otherwise, arising from such cancellation or postponement and acknowledges that in such circumstances the Organiser is entitled to retain any money paid or to recover any money not paid by the Exhibitor in relation to this contract. (c) If, in the reasonable opinion of the Organiser, the Exhibitor breaches any of the terms and conditions of this Contract or if the Exhibitor does not occupy its space at the commencement of and during the full period of the exhibition, the Organiser reserves the right to expel the Exhibitor, cancel this Contract and retain any money paid or to recover any money not paid in relation thereto.
